A little bit about us...

Incorporated in October 2003, NAHREP of Silicon Valley is a non-profit trade association. Our chapter was created to establish a venue where members can network, exchange ideas, and formulate an agenda beneficial to the Silicon Valley and Bay Area Latino Community in matters relating to Homeownership.

Our membership consists of real estate practitioners from diverse real estate agencies, lending institutions, title companies and independent practitioners as well as corporate members in Silicon Valley and the Bay Area.

The NAHREP of Silicon Valley Mission is accomplished by the following...

- ◆ Providing a forum where members can communicate and collectively express their respective agendas with other segments of the real estate community
- ◆ Advocating Policy that supports the legislative interests of Latino real estate professionals
- ◆ Distributing information that assists members to successfully adjust to industry changes brought about by enhanced modern technologies
- ◆ Networking with other real estate practitioners to increase business opportunities, and focus on providing a solution to the need of Latino consumers
